Council Update from Councilwoman Susan Welkovits, Chair of Economic Development & Planning Committee

Email: welkovitshp@gmail.com

Highland Park's commitment to Economic Development is evident in our vibrant downtown and all that we offer our residents throughout the year. From now throughout December, not a week will go by without plenty of activities for everyone!

We had our biggest and best 5k Race to date, to celebrate the 10th year of the race. With well over 500 runners, plus our generous sponsors, we were able to raise money for the Highland Park police department, fire department, recreation department, public library, and rescue squad. Thank you to all the runners, sponsors, and volunteers who made this wonderful event possible for its tenth year! Visit www.runinthepark.org for the full list of sponsors – we are so grateful for their support. Also we still have the tenth anniversary HP5k mugs available for sale – they can be found at either Pino's or Through the Moongate!

Our Farmers Market season starts on Friday June 1, and is every Friday from 11:00 a.m. – 5:30 p.m. until December 14 in the municipal lot between 2nd and 3rd Avenues. Visit www.MainStreetHP.org for the full list of market vendors! Also save the date for our special Farmers Market Tomato Festival on Friday, July 27 and Squash Festival on Friday, October 5 – and note that at both events, the market will be open extended hours, until 6:30 pm!

We've got another great lineup of free Outdoor Movies downtown this summer! The main feature starts at 9:00 p.m. and as always, there will be 30 minutes of kid-friendly cartoons around 8:20 p.m. before the main feature. So grab a chair and get some takeout from one of Highland Park's restaurants, and enjoy dinner and a movie under the stars, right downtown. View the whole movie season's schedule at www.MainStreetHP.org.

Calling All Artists, Vendors and Sponsors for Arts in the Park! Are you an artist? A vendor? A sponsor of the arts? Main Street Highland Park wants YOU. Arts in the Park, Highland Park's annual street festival and juried art show, is back for its lucky 13th year on Sunday, September 16. This event is Highland Park's premiere festival and attracts thousands of people to downtown Highland Park.

Main Street Highland Park invites you to join us for samplings of some of Highland Park's finest musicians! Friday Night Music on the Corners runs through the summer, with musicians EVERY Friday playing in our outdoor "living room" locations at the corner of Raritan & North 4th Avenues. Keep up with upcoming Music on the Corner events by following the Main Street Highland Park Facebook page, www.facebook.com/MainStreetHP.

Our Safe Walking and Cycling Committee (SWACC), worked with Keep Middlesex Moving, our County transportation management association, to host Walk-to-School and Bike-to-School Days in May, to encourage healthy transportation alternatives for our youngest residents.

SWACC has recently been accepted into the NJ Department of Transportation's technical assistance program to improve safe walking and cycling in our Borough. Perhaps you visited our booth at the Street Fair? Help us identify pedestrian and bicycle transportation issues and opportunities in Highland Park using our survey and by marking up our online map. In continued efforts to encourage residents' involvement, members of our Economic Development Committee hosted several meetings with residents of Walter Avenue to help define a Redevelopment Plan for a large property in the neighborhood. The meetings allowed the Borough to explain the unique attributes of the property and the possibilities for Redevelopment, while eliciting input on design, density, and use.

Our new Abandoned Property Ordinance is successfully improving the look, feel, and value of our residential neighborhoods. Earlier this year we identified nearly 25 properties which had shown neglect. More than half, have been either brought up to code, renovated or sold for renovation. This is an ongoing list and with concerted effort, we look forward to keeping our neighborhoods safe and maintaining the highest of property values. Should you suspect a residential property is vacant or in neglect, please contact Code Enforcement at 732-819-3795.

When you have a moment, please take a walk over to the corner of Raritan and South Adelaide Avenues where we have laid a beautiful monument to the late Councilman Jon Erickson. With a generous contribution from his wife, Anne Sherber, and family, the Borough has dedicated a new bus stop and seating area to our friend and colleague for his years of commitment to Highland Park and our residents. Special thanks to Jim Nichols, AIA, LEED AP, Chair of Main Street Design Committee who designed the monument for us.

Programs at the Highland Park Senior Center

While the Highland Park Senior Center (located at 220 South 6th Ave) conducts programs to serve all citizens of the borough, a wide array of their offerings will appeal to observant Jews. The center holds a Yiddish speakers group weekly on Wednesday mornings, computer classes on Friday mornings, and chair yoga and senior walking groups on Monday mornings. The center screens popular recently released movies on Mondays in the early afternoons; in May, participants viewed The Post, The Greatest Showman, and The Shape of Water.

The Senior Center also holds weekly lunches (for a small fee) featuring varied programs, with kosher options provided by the Orchid and Giddy's restaurants on Tuesday and Thursday (courtesy of the Jewish Family Services' CAMEO On The Road program). Lunches in May included a visit by a therapy dog, musical entertainers, and a talk by a Vietnam veteran about the Navajo Code Talkers.

Additionally, the Senior Center provides free transportation to Borough residents to stops within town and to medical appointments out-of-town; rides are available at designated hours and advance registration is required.

Highland Park residents can attend all programs, and access the center's services, for a $15/year membership fee. For more information, on the Senior Center's programs and services and to request a monthly calendar please contact us at 732-819-0052.
