Mayor Gayle Brill Mittler Invites you to "A Thank You Highland Park Party!"

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Humanitarian Awards Program

"Reach One, Teach One, Mentor Many" epitomizes the message of Martin Luther King, Jr. Join the Highland Park Human Relations Commission and Community Services in remembering Martin Luther King and honoring one of our own at the Humanitarian Awards Program. Monday, January 19, 7:00-9:00pm at the Senior/Youth Center, 220 South 6th Ave. This year's Honoree is longtime Highland Park resident Frances McDonald. Come out for special entertainment and refreshments. Our Guest Speaker is Bill Davis, Adjunct Professor at Rutgers University. For more information email the Human Relations Commission at humanrelationshp@gmail.com.

Highland Marks

The boys and girls in Mrs. Medine's Kindergarten class at Irving School held a special Toy and Book Drive for students in need in the New Brunswick area. The class coordinated efforts with the Reformed Church and collected about 25 books and toys to donate.

Have you – or someone you know – done something recently that's particularly noteworthy? Let us know about it and we'll include it in Highland Marks! Write to communications@hpboro.com

Park Partners 2015 Winners

Congratulations to the 2015 Park Partners Community Grant Program winners!

Arts: Highland Park High School and Middle School Orchestra for performances in the community to spread music awareness and to help raise funds to compete in the National School Orchestra Championships in Lincoln Center.

Environment The Environmental Club of HP High School will run a project called Project Enrich HP, a series of movie screenings and speaker engagements to celebrate the environment and help educate the public.

Health & Wellness: CuttingOutHunger - Winners for a second year, this organization will use the grant to provide the Food Pantry with additional food and supplies.

Culture & Diversity: Community Library for Touchstone Discussion Project Groups - This group will create discussion groups to bring together people from diverse cultures and backgrounds using a curriculum called Touchstones Discussion Project. This will enable residents to learn about new cultures and will provide resource material for the discussions.

Safety: Family Den's "Healthy Active Kids" - The Family Den at The Cave will purchase safe "tumbling" equipment for young children to provide a safe place for young children to exercise and play.

We are looking forward to the implementation of their programs to benefit our community!
