Park It! Celebration Weekend

Join Highland Park in celebrating our friendly, fun and diverse community! From Thursday, October 23 – Sunday, October 26 numerous events will take place downtown, in the Library and Municipal buildings. Music, dancing, fitness, presentations, art, social events and more!

Pick up a listing of events at Borough Hall, Main Street offices, Stop & Shop, Saiff Drug, Pino's and the Senior/Youth Center or visit the website at www.hpboro.com. Celebrate Highland Park!

Restaurant Week

Great food and great deals are coming to Highland Park's many delicious and family-friendly restaurants! Highland Park's Restaurant Week 2014, October 24 - 31, is a week-long event that showcases Highland Park's many interesting, diverse, and delicious places to eat. Participating restaurants will offer a variety of promotions, including special discounts, price fixed menus, and other great deals. A list of restaurants will be available on the Main Street website at www.mainstreethp.org.

Election Guidelines

Election time is approaching, and candidates and voters are gearing up for the election season! Please be aware of all election rules and town ordinances, such as posting notices, political signs, and fund-raising guidelines. For more information see the Borough website at www.hpboro.com.

Questions? Feedback? We want to hear from you!

Highland Marks

Resident Chaim Cohen, an AP computer science teacher at East Brunswick High School, achieved tenure last month at the district. He has coached students to place highly in many different programming competitions. When he's not teaching, Cohen, vice chair of the Highland Park Public Information Committee, can be seen around town donning Google Glass.

Have you – or someone you know – done something recently that's particularly noteworthy? Let us know about it and we'll include it in Highland Marks! Write to communications@hpboro.com.

Insect Work Shop

Adults and kids are invited to the "Insect Work Shop" - October 19, 3:00-5:00pm at the Environmental Center, 20 River Rd. View, find and mount bugs!
